

Jordan Safirstein, MD, FACC, FSCAI, is Assistant Director of the Cardiac Catheterization Laboratories and Director of Transradial Intervention at Morristown Medical Center / Atlantic Health System in Morristown, New Jersey. He has authored numerous articles in the field of interventional cardiology and was selected for the prestigious Emerging Leader Fellowship by the Society of Coronary Angiography and Intervention. Dr. Safirstein is also Co-Founder of the New Jersey Cardiovascular Foundation and Course Director of the Garden State Angio Club and Cors at the Shore interventional cardiology symposia. After earning his MD at the Chicago Medical School, Dr. Safirstein completed his residency in internal medicine at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine, Montefiore Medical Center in Bronx, New York. He completed his fellowship in cardiovascular disease and cardiovascular intervention at St. Vincent's Catholic Medical Center in New York City.